

Picture 1

After removing the two screws on the left side, these two screws need to be removed. Note that the lower screw retains the small spring. You must use a star top screwdriver to remove all screws!

Picture 2

The two screws from the right side are significantly smaller than the ones you removed previously on the left side. Note the “detent” – flat side – on the nylon washer as shown here by the arrow.